Training 02 - Cultural Responsiveness in MCH Training and Healthy Tomorrows Programs	The percent of MCHB training and Healthy Tomorrows programs that have incorporated cultural and linguistic responsiveness elements into their policies, guidelines, and training. Show less

Goal	To increase the percentage of MCH Training and Healthy Tomorrows programs that have integrated cultural and linguistic responsiveness into their policies, guidelines, and training. Show less
Level	Grantee
Domain	MCH Workforce Development
Definition	Attached is a checklist of 6 elements that demonstrate cultural and linguistic responsiveness. Please check yes or no to indicate if your MCH Training or Healthy Tomorrows program has met each element. Please keep the completed checklist attached. Cultural and linguistic responsiveness is a set of congruent behaviors, attitudes, and policies that come together in a system, agency, or among professionals that enables effective work in cross-cultural situations. 'Culture' refers to integrated patterns of human behavior that include the language, thoughts, communications, actions, customs, beliefs, values, and institutions of racial, ethnic, religious, or social groups. 'Responsiveness' implies having the capacity to function effectively as an individual and an organization within the context of the cultural beliefs, behaviors, and needs presented by consumers and their communities. (Adapted from Cross, 1989; cited from National Center for Cultural Competence). Linguistic responsiveness is the capacity of an organization and its personnel to communicate effectively, and convey information in a manner that is easily understood by diverse audiences including persons of limited English proficiency, those who have low literacy skills or are not literate, and individuals with disabilities. Linguistic responsiveness requires organizational and provider capacity to respond effectively to the health literacy needs of populations served. The organization must have policy, structures, practices, procedures, and dedicated resources to support this capacity. (Goode, T. and W. Jones, 2004. National Center for Cultural Competence). Cultural and linguistic responsiveness is a process that occurs along a developmental continuum. A culturally and linguistically responsive program is characterized by elements including the following: written strategies for advancing cultural responsiveness; cultural and linguistic responsiveness policies and practices; cultural and linguistic responsiveness knowledge and skills building efforts; research data on populations served according to racial, ethnic, and linguistic groupings; faculty and other instructors are racially and ethnically diverse; faculty and staff participate in professional development activities related to cultural and linguistic responsiveness; and periodic assessment of trainees' progress in developing cultural and linguistic responsiveness. Show less

Benchmark Data Sources	Related to the following HP2030 Objectives:          PHI-RO3: Increase the use of core and discipline-specific competencies to drive workforce development.          PHI-06: Increase the proportion of state public health agencies that use core competencies in continuing education.          PHI-07: Increase the proportion of local public health agencies that use core competencies in continuing education. Show less
Grantee Data Sources	Attached data collection form is to be completed by grantees.          There is no existing national data source to measure the extent to which MCHB supported programs have incorporated cultural responsiveness elements into their policies, guidelines, and training. Show less
Significance	Over the last decade, researchers and policymakers have emphasized the central influence of cultural values and cultural/linguistic barriers: health seeking behavior, access to care, and racial and ethnic disparities. In accordance with these concerns, cultural responsiveness objectives have been: (1) incorporated into the Division of MCH Workforce Development priorities; and (2) in guidance materials related to the MCH Training and Healthy Tomorrows Programs.          The Division of MCH Workforce Development provides support to programs that address cultural and linguistic responsiveness through development of curricula, research, learning and practice environments.          This performance measure directly relates to MCHB Strategic Plan Objective 3.2: Support training and educational opportunities to create a diverse and culturally responsive MCH workforce, including professionals, community-based workers, and families. Show less

Level	Grantee
Domain	MCH Workforce Development
Definition	Attached is a list of the 7 elements that describe activities carried out by the Healthy Tomorrows programs for, or in collaboration, with State Title V and other agencies on a scale of 0 to 1 (0 = no, 1 = yes). If a value '1' (yes) is selected, provide the number of activities for the element. Significance	As a SPRANS grantee, a training program enhances the Title V State block grants that support the MCHB Strategic Plan Goal 1: to assure access to high-quality and equitable health services to optimize health and well-being for all MCH populations. Interactive collaboration between a training program and Federal, Tribal, State and local agencies dedicated to improving the health of MCH populations will increase active involvement of many disciplines across public and private sectors and increase the likelihood of success in meeting the goals of relevant stakeholders. This measure will document a training program's abilities to: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1) collaborate with State Title V and other agencies (at a systems level) to support achievement of MCHB Strategic Goals and Healthy People 2030 objectives;</li> <li>2) make the needs of MCH populations more visible to decision-makers and can help states achieve best practice standards for their systems of care; and</li> <li>3) internally use these data to assure a full scope of these program elements in all regions. Show less</li> </ol>
State Title V Agencies	These programs include State Block Grant funded or supported activities.
Other MCH-related programs	Other maternal and child health-related programs (both MCHB-funded and funded from other sources) include, but are not limited to: State Health Department, State Adolescent Health, Social Service Agency, Medicaid Agency, Education, Juvenile Justice, Early Intervention, Home Visiting, Professional Organizations/Associations, Family and/or Consumer Group, Foundation, Clinical Program/Hospitals, Local and State Division of Mental Health, Developmental Disability Agencies, Other programs working with Maternal and Child Health Populations. Show less
Service	Ongoing collaborations with clinical locations should be counted as one activity (For example: multiple trainees rotate through the same community-based clinical site over the course of the year. This should be counted as one activity.) Show less

Training 05 - Policy Development	The degree to which MCH long-term training grantees engage in policy development, implementation, and evaluation.
Performance Measure	The degree to which MCH long-term training grantees engage in policy development, implementation, and evaluation.
Goal	To increase the number of MCH long-term training programs that actively promote the transfer and utilization of MCH knowledge and research to the policy arena through the work of faculty, trainees, alumni, and collaboration with Title V. Show less

Domain	MCH Workforce Development
Definition	Attached is a list of six elements that demonstrate policy engagement. Please check yes or no to indicate which the elements have been implemented. Please keep the completed checklist attached. Policy development, implementation and evaluation in the context of MCH training programs relates to the process of translating research to policy and training for leadership in the core public health function of policy development. Show less
Benchmark Data Sources	PHI-R02: Expand public health pipeline programs that include service or experiential learning. PHI-R03: Increase use of core and discipline-specific competencies to drive workforce development. Show less
Grantee Data Sources	The below data collection form is to be completed by grantees.
Significance	Policy development is one of the three core functions of public health as defined by the Institute of Medicine in The Future of Public Health (National Academy Press, Washington DC, 2015). In this landmark report by the IOM, the committee recommends that "every public health agency exercise its responsibility to serve the public interest in the development of comprehensive public health policies by promoting use of the scientific knowledge base in decision-making about public health and by leading in developing public health policy." Academic institutions such as schools of public health and research universities have the dual responsibility to develop knowledge and to produce well-trained professional practitioners. This national performance measure relates directly to MCHB Strategic Plan Goal 3: Strengthen public health capacity and workforce in MCH. Show less

Significance	HRSA’s MCHB places special emphasis on improving service delivery to women, children and youth from communities with limited access to comprehensive care. Training an ethnically and racially diverse group of professionals is necessary in order to provide a diverse public health workforce to meet the needs of the changing demographics of the U.S. and to ensure access to culturally responsive and effective services. This performance measure provides the necessary data to report on HRSA’s initiatives to reduce health disparities. ▼ Training Form 15 Detail Sheet

Training 15 - Consultation and Training for Mental and Behavioral Health
Goal	Increase the availability and accessibility of consultation services to providers caring for individuals with behavioral or mental health conditions.
Level	Grantee
Domain	MCH Workforce Development
Measure	Number of providers participating in consultation and care coordination support services.
Definition	Total number of providers participating in consultation (teleconsultation and in-person) and care coordination support services provided by the Pediatric Mental Health Care Access (PMHCA) program and the Screening for Maternal Depression and Related Behavioral Disorders (MDRBD) program. Show less
Benchmark Data Sources	None
Grantee Data Sources	PMHCA and MDRBD awardees report using the data collection form.
Significance	Mental and behavioral health issues are prevalent among children and adolescents, and pregnant and postpartum women in the United States. However, due to shortages in the number of psychiatrists, developmental-behavioral providers, and other behavioral health clinicians, access to mental and behavioral health services is lacking. Research indicates that telehealth can improve access to care, reduce health care costs, improve health outcomes, and address workforce shortages in underserved areas. Telehealth strategies that connect primary care providers with specialty mental and behavioral health care providers can be an effective means of increasing access to mental and behavioral health services for children and pregnant and postpartum women, especially those living in rural and other underserved areas. Show less

For this measure, you may use provider zip codes to identify rural or underserved counties if the patient zip code is unavailable. The use of patient zip codes is not required. HRSA defines rural areas as all counties that are not designated as parts of metropolitan areas (Mas) by the Office of Management and Budget. In addition, HRSA uses Rural Urban Commuting Area Codes to designate rural areas within Mas. This rural definition can be accessed at <https://www.hrsa.gov/rural-health/about-us/what-is-rural>. If the county is not entirely rural or urban, follow the link for “Rural Health Grants Eligibility Analyzer” to determine if a specific site qualifies as rural based on its specific census tract within an otherwise urban county. Underserved areas are defined by the following terms: Any Medically Underserved Area/Population (MUA/P); or a Partially MUA/P. MUA/Ps are accessible through <https://data.hrsa.gov/tools/shortage-area/mua-find>.
